New Confederate monuments are going up and these are the people behind them

By Emanuella Grinberg, CNN - Updated 11:27 PM ET, Wed August 23, 2017

Since 2007, John Culpepper had been anticipating this moment: the unveiling of a statue to the common Confederate soldier in his hometown of Chickamauga, Georgia. In November of last year, three days before Donald Trump won the presidency, it became a reality.

Culpepper founded the local chapter of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the self-described historic honor society that's been keeping the Confederate legacy alive for more than a century.

Culpepper greeted visitors with smiles and handshakes as they filed into rows of white folding chairs behind the towering, shrouded statue. Most of them were his neighbors from Chickamauga, a town of some 3,000 people near the Tennessee border. Some were dressed in the uniforms of Confederate soldiers; a woman and her daughter came dressed in hoop skirts, and bikers wore leather jackets and bandanas awash in Confederate flags.

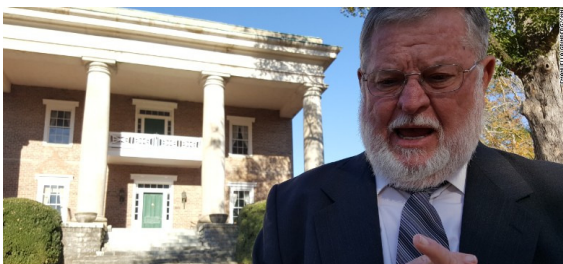

The monument, erected on the grounds of an antebellum plantation that's now owned by the city, was dedicated to soldiers of the Confederate Army of Tennessee. It's the unit that local men fought for during the Civil War -- what the town still refers to on its website as the "War Between the States."

"It's about remembering our ancestors, the people who built this town," said Culpepper, who retired as Chickamauga city manager in 2013 after 34 years. "Regardless of what you think about the cause, they were fighting for their home, their land, their neighbors."

At a time when Confederate statues and plaques are coming down across the country, the SCV is among the few groups pushing not just to preserve those that exist, but to establish new ones.

The audience clapped as Culpepper pulled the covering off the life-size bronze figure. The soldier was bearded, wearing a period-perfect hat, jacket and gunnysack. He clutched his rifle by the barrel and faced north toward Chickamauga battlefield -- the site of the bloodiest Civil War battle after Gettysburg.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends," the inscription at the monument's base reads.

John Culpepper

SC Division DISPATCH

Commander Leland Summers

There are many heritage organizations throughout the South. Some may have some of the same goals as the SCV. Maybe so, but their approach is not ours. They attempt to align themselves with us just to intensify their own credibility. None are a "Historical Honor Society". None of their members are solely descendants of honorable men and women. None have a Charge bequeathed to us by our ancestors. None attempt to teach the true history of the Southland in a positive light. For these reasons, the Sons of Confederate Veterans has a specific affiliation policy.

"In 1896 the Sons of Confederate Veterans was founded by the veterans and progeny of veterans who fought in the War Between the States, and it is the organization that supports the protection and preservation of Confederate heritage. Current members are descendants of the original defenders of Confederate heritage. Pursuant to the organizational constitution, the Sons of Confederate Veterans Inc. is not affiliated with any organization."

Likewise, the South Carolina Division has a specific Policy on Hate Groups:

"The Sons of Confederate Veterans IS NOT a hate group and the South Carolina Division, SCV DOES NOT knowingly allow anyone with ties to a racial hate groups to join. The SCV has removed and will remove any member who expresses racist sentiments...Loving the South and defending its culture, symbols, and heritage DOES NOT MEAN HATE. Many SCV members are descendants of a varied cross section of descendants of the Old South such as Native Americans, African-Americans, Hispanics, and Asian Americans, Christian and Jewish Confederates. These groups' contributions to Southern culture have made the South a beautiful and unique region. To deny their descendants membership in our organization would betray our principles and the very ancestors we honor. We welcome ALL descendants of Confederate Soldiers, Sailors and Marines or those who paternally aided the South in its struggle for independence."

As your Division Commander I will vigorously enforce both policies. We must remember the Pledge we took in the presence of our fellow Compatriots when we joined. Perhaps we should remind ourselves of this Pledge.

It is essential we present ourselves as true Southern gentlemen in the way we act and dress. Doing so gains us respect and credibility. No doubt there are those that will hate and oppose us regardless what we do. It is time to ask ourselves; will waving a flag in their faces make a difference or change their view of what we stand for? Certainly not. Will standing together at a monument in solidarity or conducting memorial services make a difference? It certainly will. Will reminding others the First Amendment states "the people" not "some people" bring about change? It can. Will interacting with our elected officials make a difference? Too often our legislators tell me we don't know what you want. We never hear from you. This has to change. Just because we know certain elected officials are against us is no excuse to shun them thinking we cannot make a difference? It can and will.

Now is not the time to engage in internal struggles. This serves no purpose other than weaken our effectiveness. We have too many external forces against us. Now is the time to stand together as a unified force as our ancestors did in the War for Southern Independence. Now is the time for us to unite as one to protect them, their monuments and flags. Our strength lies in a unified line.

Get up or give up!

Lt. Commander Henry Richardson

Compatriots,

We live in a time never before seen in the south. Our flags are being removed and our monuments are in danger of being taken down or destroyed. We need to stand up for our Confederate ancestors and what they believed in. We need to do this in a way that is peaceful. The 8th Brigade and the 2nd Brigade took part in a peaceful stance and won. I commend them for a job well done.

We just finished our camp renewals for 2017 and 2018 . I would like a report from all camps on how many compatriots did not renew this year and why they did not renew so we can try to resolve the issues.

I am sending out potential members every day to camps and brigades. I need you to check your camp email. Since taking office in March of 2016 I have sent out every potential member that I have received to a camp and brigade.

I would also like to thank the camps that sent boys and girls to the Sam Davis Youth Camp this year. I think we can set a goal for next year that each brigade send three young people to camp. If we start looking now, I think there are plenty of youth who would the opportunity to attend. The 1st Brigade sent five this year so I know that it can be done.

I would like to encourage each Brigade that has not completed the Brigade Challenge to do so. We also have coins and pavers for sale. If you want to see the Signers Monument project complete, then we need your help.

Again, it is my pleasure to be your SC Division LT Commander. I really enjoy working with y'all. If your camps need anything, please let me know. I will be running again for LT Commander in 2018 and would like the opportunity to serve you and your camps for a second term.

"GOD DID NOT INTEND FOR US TO BE AT WAR WITH ONE ANOTHER "

Ever since the beginning of time there has always been war. We read in the bible that there were solders of war. Solders fought in the Revolutionary War , The Civil War, World War 1, World War 2 and many other wars to follow. All the solders that fought in these wars fought for what they believed in, whether it was in themselves or the country they were fighting for.

Today our solders fight to keep peace in our own country and states. We continue to fight for our monuments, and our flag and our Civil War History.

We see protesting of our flag in all the southern states. The wrong group of people link The Sons of Confederate Veterans with the KKK and Nazi groups, which is totally misleading. Our monuments are being threatened so we have become solders of our own beliefs. Today we find ourselves defending our Civil War History and all it stands for.

God did not intend for His people to always be at odds with one another. We as members have become solders in our own right, fighting for what we believe, Our God ,Our Country , Our Flag and Our Monuments.

People don't realize that The Sons Of Confederate Veterans believe very strongly in Our Lord, and Savior Jesus Christ. So we can proudly sing "ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDERS."

We are proud to march as Sons of Confederate Veterans, Solders Of God.

"GOD OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH, YOU HAVE BOUND US TOGETHER IN A COMMON LIF. IN ALL OUR CONFLICTS, HELP US TO CONFRONT ONE ANOTHER WITHOUT HATRED OR BITTERNESS, TO LISTEN FOR YOUR VOICE AND COMPETING CLAIMS, AND TO WORK TOGETHER WITH MUTUALFORBEARANCEAND RESPECT, THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD." AMEN

A Tale of Two Cities

Charles Dickens opening sentence to his timeless book, “A Tale of Two Cities”, perhaps characterizes best the circumstances surrounding the two cities of Springfield and Holly Hill, both in South Carolina. To paraphrase Mr. Dickens, “it was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, ... it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness....”.

It all seems to be a matter of knowledge. It all seems to be a matter of who educates themselves. It all seems to be a matter of who cares about their knowledge and who does not. “Ignorance” by definition means “lack of knowledge”. Some people simply don’t care about being ignorant while others dig themselves out of the hole of darkness.

So the comparison begins with the residents of these two cities.

The Holly Hill Church Alliance and Mayor invited our South Carolina Division Commander to address their citizens regarding the SCV intent to raise the “Confederate flag” in their community. Commander Summers was scheduled to address the citizens first then respond to their questions.

Commander Summers did exactly as he was asked and covered the issues in detail and without apology. The property was donated to the SCV for the purpose of erecting a flag pole and to fly our ancestors ANV flag continuously. The property is located outside the Holly Hill city limits in Orangeburg County.

Quite to the contrary, the President of the church leadership group was completely opposed to our use of the property, even ending the discussion with the statement that our flag represented a group who flew it while fighting to maintain slavery. Another minister compared the flag to the Nazi emblem when he stated that both banners had been taken over by nefarious groups.

Stirred up by these comments, numerous people in the audience made hostile statements and asked leading questions.

Prior to the meeting it was proposed that the SCV make a presentation at a later date to cover the facts surrounding the War and our ancestors’ involvement. Before the meeting, this was an acceptable proposal. After the meeting, the question was ignored. No compromise was offered by any person attending the meeting and the meeting adjourned.

Springfield is similar to Holly Hill in that the majority of the population is African-American, but that is where the likeness ends.

A PhD resident of Springfield spent numerable hours researching the history of a lady buried in the Smyrna Baptist Church cemetery. His finding was historic. Her name is Lavinia Thompson and uniquely she is a black female Confederate soldier. The South Carolina Senate recognized soldier Thompson in 2017-2018 Senate bill S.329.

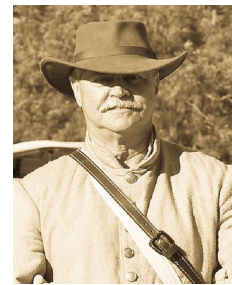

The Smyrna Baptist Church chose to recognize soldier Thompson at their annual Reunion and included the members of the SCV in that recognition. What a great Reunion it was, too. Perhaps 200 people were in attendance along with five members of the SCV. The SCV members were introduced to a round of applause. A large number of the men and women attending welcomed us, shook our hands and were always smiling as they looked in our direction.

The conclusion from all this is not new. When ignorance is overcome with knowledge, it is a revelation to the learned. The musician Henry Rollins once said, “Weakness is what brings ignorance, cheapness, racism, homophobia, desperation, cruelty, brutality, all these things that will keep a society chained to the ground, one foot nailed to the floor.” Our task in the SCV is and will continue to be to educate, educate, educate.

Preservation Chair Randy Burbage

South Carolina Division Flag and Uniform Preservation Committee Report

The SC Division Flag and Uniform Preservation Committee met at the Confederate Relic Room and Military Museum on Saturday, August 26, 2017. Museum Director, Allen Roberson supplied all committee members in attendance a notebook with pictures, a brief history and preservation estimates for fifteen South Carolina Confederate uniforms. The Committee discussed at length preservation of several uniforms in the collection and voted to totally fund conservation of three uniforms; the frock coat of General Gabriel Raines for $5,000, the frock coat of Co. C 6th SC Infantry Captain E. B. Canteley for $5,000, and the frock coat of Co. H 5th SC Infantry Private Norwood Kelly for $5,000. The committee also voted to set aside $5,000 for the preservation of a colonel's frock coat worn by General James Chestnut and begin a fund raiser to raise the total cost of $40,000 for conservation. This is possibly the coat Chestnut was wearing when he accepted Major Robert Anderson's surrender of Ft Sumter in April 1861.

The Committee will meet again in the fall to discuss fund raising efforts and progress on those uniforms we have committed to preserve. Camps are encouraged to donate money to the fund to conserve Chestnut's frock coat. Several other uniforms were identified to have significant ties to camps in our division, areas of South Carolina and other military organizations. We are excited about the decisions the Committee made at the last meeting and look forward to the return of the preserved uniforms.

Chairman

From The Editor

Chief Of Staff Jamie Graham

Greetings Compatriots,

I am quite pleased to be able to get the Palmetto Partisan back up and running. You can see that while we have the online version, it is printable. I hope that our camps can print and mail out copies to our Compatriots that still are without e-mail services. You will notice, I have added a section describing Camp activities around the Division. I look forward to you sending me photos describing different events and services that you are performing. Keep in mind that space is limited, so send your best photo with a description. This is long over due.

We all know about the travesties occurring around our nation concerning anything Confederate. I believe this is a time when our Division membership needs to be pulling together, stronger than ever before. We have many uphill battles to face in the future, but as a team - one unit, we can overcome the odds, and win this war. We will need a team effort to do so. It will take shared ideas, unity, and an open mind. To quote Winston Churchill, "When there is no enemy within, the enemies outside cannot hurt you." These are great words to live by.

I plan to have the newsletter going out on a quarterly basis at this point. This will allow our membership to know what our Staff, and our Camps are doing. I hope you enjoy our newsletter. I welcome all comments and suggestions.

News From The Signer's Monument Committee

Not just news, but GREAT news! The Signer's Monument project, after 8 years of planning, is quickly approaching completion. The location has been secured, and engineering plans are in the works for site grading and construction. Things will begin to happen fast very soon. By now, most of you are aware of the location. For obvious reasons, we must keep this information quiet, and within our Division. Division Commander Summers has ordered that all requests for information on this project from outside sources be directed to him for response.

In addition to all the work and details involved in the construction and placement of this extraordinary monument, plans are being made for a memorable dedication service. It won't be too long now before we can proudly tell the world that YES, we honor in stone the most significant event in our state's history.

Future generations that learn of the true history of South Carolina's secession will owe a great debt to the dedicated and faithful men of our Division. Thank you to all Camps, compatriots, and Brigades who have contributed and hung in there for 8 years, supporting this project and our committee. It wouldn't be happening without you! Compatriots and Camps who have not yet contributed, please do what you can now. Let's finish this project together, each and every one of us! If you have any questions please contact Robert Roper or Albert Jackson.

Compatriot's,
I hope all are faring well after the storm.

The South Carolina Division Constitution sates that the Division cannot assess any fees other than its yearly membership fee of $10.00. There is no new membership fee, no application fee, ?no late fee, no membership transfer fee, no reinstatement fee. The only fee the Division can charge its membership is the yearly fee of $10.00 which is the membership dues.?

If you have a problem accessing anything on the website...on the first page that opens up, scroll down to the bottom of the that page and you will see a blue rectangular box. Click on that box and you will be able to send the webmaster an email...just relay the problem you are having and he should clear it up and email you back.
